

Margaux Resources Ltd.

Job title: Vice President, Business Development Asia (NOC 0016)

Location of work: 6259 Hwy 3, Salmo, BC V0G 1Z0

Working hours: 40 hours per week,

Annual Salary: $ 104,000

Vacation: 4 weeks paid vacation

Job Type: Permanent, full-time position

Margaux Resources Ltd. (TSX.V: MRL, OTCQB: MARFF) is a mineral acquisition and exploration company focused on gold exploration in British Columbia and is directed by a group of highly successful Canadian business executives. We are currently looking for an accomplished Vice President, Business Development Asia with experience in mining exploration and investment financing.

Vice President, Business Development Asia Region will be part of the executive management team, working on a cooperative basis with the mining exploration operations, projects managements, and business development. Specifically, this role will be responsible for investment attraction and strategic alliance building across the Asia-Pacific region.

Job Duties:

- Sources, attracts and closes investment transactions with investors from the Asia-Pacific region, with a strong focus on business development
- Builds and maintains relationship with existing and potential investors and industry analysts.
- Oversee and evolve the organization's ongoing capital markets strategy in the Asia-Pacific region.
- Develop and manage timeline for investor conferences, deal and/or non-deal roadshows and other major events
- Prepare and update marketing documents including pitch materials, press releases and corporate fact sheets
- Leads the execution of investment deal mandates including the preparation of confidential information memorandums and investor lists. Works with in-house legal counsel to prepare definitive sale documentation
- Increase the awareness of the company to the investing public in the Asia-Pacific region

- Be the primary contact for the investment community and shareholders in the target region
- Support the company's mining operations through technical assistance, mentoring, technical leadership
- Support the company's executive management with mining expertise
- Assessment, due diligence and technical auditing/review of mines and projects supporting the company's growth strategy through acquisitions and internal projects
- Perform financial modeling and analysis to support tradeoff studies, value engineering decisions, acquisitions and valuations
- Estimation the mining portion of project capital and operating costs
- Assist with and contribute to corporate development, strategy and reporting needs

Job Requirements and qualifications:

Education:

A University Degree is preferred

Requirements and Qualifications:

- 5 years of related working experiences in Business Development within mining industry
- 5 years of experience in an executive leadership position including in operations activities
- Experience in financing for mining companies in the Asia-Pacific region
- Directly related professional experience in risk management and control of investment in mineral exploration
- Detailed in-depth understanding of mining operations, as well as financial and operational reporting

Contact information:

Please respond to this posting by sending your resume and cover letter to the following email address: tyler@margauxresources.com